10:00 a.m. HOLY EUCHARIST (BAS)

Welcome to St. Matthew the Apostle Oriole! Everything you will need for the service is found in this leaflet, and hymns are found in the blue book, Common Praise. If you require a hearing-assist device, please speak to a sidesperson.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Prelude: "Voluntary on a flight of angels"..... G. F. Handel

Sentence: Bless the Lord, all you his hosts, you ministers of his who do his will.
(Psalm 103.21)

Hymn: 420 "Praise the Lord, ye heavens adore him" REX GLORIAE

The Greeting

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Celebrant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORY TO GOD (Sung)

Cantor: Glory to God in the highest,

All: and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY (Please remain standing.)

Celebrant: Let us pray (A moment of silence is taken.)

Eternal God, you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order the ministries of angels and mortals. Grant that as your holy angels stand before you in heaven, so at your command they may help and defend us here on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Genesis

Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place and I did not know it!" And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

(Genesis 28:10-17)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 103: 19-22 Chant: George Black

Refrain: Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Choir: The Lord is enthroned in heaven,
and has dominion over all.

Bless the Lord, you angels,
you mighty ones who do the bidding of God,
and hearken to the voice of the word of the Lord. Refrain.

All: Bless the Lord, all you hosts,
you ministers who do the will of God.
Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord,
in all places of the dominion of the Lord;
bless the Lord, O my soul. Refrain.

SECOND LESSON

Reader: A Reading from the Revelation to John

War broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world - he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death. Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!" (Revelation 12:7-12)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: 324 "Hallelujah" HALLELUJAH

The Holy Gospel

Archdeacon: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Archdeacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Archdeacon: When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man." (John 1:47-51)

Archdeacon: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily: The Venerable Kyn Barker

THE APOSTLES CREED (Please stand.)

Celebrant: Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People (As announced.)

Please stand, sit, or kneel as is most prayerful and comfortable for you.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

(silence).

Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace (Please stand.)

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you

All: And also with you.

You are invited to share a word of peace with others in the congregation.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

The Preparation of the Gifts

Offertory Hymn: 272 "Christ, the fair glory of the holy angels"COELITES PLAUDANT

Prayer Over the Gifts (Please stand.)

Celebrant: God of glory, as you have appointed angels to minister in your presence, so may all our worship bring you worthy praise. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise, because, in the mystery you disclose to us, you reveal your glory as the glory of your Son and the Holy Spirit: three persons equal in majesty, undivided in splendour, yet one Lord, one God, ever to be adored in your everlasting glory. Therefore with all the company of heaven we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

All: we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant: and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (Sung.)

Celebrant: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All: So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

THE COMMUNION

Celebrant: The gifts of God for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Agnus Dei (Sung)

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Please wait for the direction of the Sidespeople.

If you would like to receive a blessing instead of Communion, please indicate this by crossing your hands over your chest as you approach the priest.

If you would like to receive the bread only, simply touch the base of the chalice as the wine is offered. Gluten free-hosts are available.

Communion Hymns: 315 “When the morning stars together” WEISSE FLAGGEN

Prayer after Communion (Please stand.)

Celebrant: Eternal God, you have fed us with the bread of angels. May we who come under their protection, like them give you continual service and praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Doxology

Celebrant: Glory to God,

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Genesis 28:10–17

The complex of stories that make up the third cycle in Genesis (ch 25:19-ch 36) is often called the Jacob Cycle since they focus largely on the second of Isaac and Rebekah's two sons, Jacob. He had been born gripping his older twin brother's heel, and was named Ya'aqob (Jacob) which mean "he holds by the heel" or "he cheats." Jacob's whole life is marked by manipulation and cheating—of other people and even of God. The lectionary chooses to omit the major stories of how he cheats his brother, Esau: first of his birthright as older, in exchange for a dish of lentil soup (25:29-34); and then, aided by his mother, by deceiving his father and brother of the paternal blessing (ch 27). Directed by his parents to flee his angry brother and go to his mother's homeland to find a wife, Jacob sets out for Aram to find his mother's brother, Laban, with whom he hopes to live in safety. He reaches a spot that in later times sat on the boundary between the tribes of Benjamin and Ephraim, and at this boundary place he has a dream of a set of ascending steps (often translated as "a ladder"), perhaps something like an ancient ziggurat or temple reaching with great stone steps up toward heaven. In Jacob's dream, "messengers of God" are going up from him, and coming back down. In classical Hebrew, messengers of God is the term that later came to be translated as angels. (Note here too the reversed order of what we would expect, so significant that in John's Gospel 1:43ff, Jesus alludes to this story when he calls the disciples Philip and Nathaniel.) As the story unfolds, in his dream God makes him a promise. On awaking, Jacob recognizes that he is in a holy place, and sets up a sacred marker stone, naming the place Beth-el, "House of God." But even this does not stop Jacob from driving a bargain with God—he sets conditions that God must meet if Jacob is to be loyal (28:20-21). In the larger biblical narrative, the story is an etiology, a story that tells us about the origins of an important Israelite holy place and shrine at Bethel. It also foreshadows a more intense meeting and struggle that Jacob will have when he finally comes back years later, and re-enters the land at the Wadi Jabbok on the east side of the Jordan. But at this season of the year the story also speaks importantly to us of the ways God travels with us into risk, protects us at the boundary moments of life, chooses to address us through unexpected messengers in many forms, and opens our eyes to the presence of the sacred and holy in whatever place we find ourselves.

Youth Classes/Confirmation Prep

We have several young people who are interested in beginning preparation for confirmation, and learning more about following Jesus!

Classes will begin in October, on two Thursday evenings a month. If you would like more information or have a young person who may like to take part, please speak to Rev. Sherri.

“Outreach Committee” and “Invite Welcome Connect”

We are looking for members to join these important groups!

"Outreach and Social Justice Committee" (to help support existing and new outreach initiatives) and "Invite, Welcome, Connect Team" (to help us grow in inviting others, building connections with our neighbours, and welcoming visitors and newcomers).

If you would like more info on either group or would like to join one or both, please be in touch with Reverend Sherri or Anne Creighton.

Harvest Thanksgiving

The Altar Guild will be decorating the Church for Harvest Thanksgiving.

Your donations of fruit and vegetables would be very welcome. We want to make our Church look beautiful, showing the bounty of God's creation.

The produce will be donated to the Oriole Food Space the following week. We would like fruit and vegetables that will still be good after 3 or 4 days. There is a refrigerator for storing the produce after Sunday services but very fragile fruit and vegetables, like lettuce, might not keep well.

Cabbage, squash, apples, potatoes, onions, turnips and carrots, for example, are hardy and will display well and still be useful at the Food Bank.

Non perishable food, e.g. cooking oil, canned meat and vegetables, are also welcomed by the food bank.

You can bring donations on Sunday, October 6th or on Tuesday the 8th from 9:00 a.m. -3:00 p.m.

Thank you.
