THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Prelude: “Basse de Trompette”François Couperin

Territorial Acknowledgment (please stand)

The land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinabek Nations, and the Mississaugas of the New Credit First Nation. This territory was the subject of the Dish-With-One-Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy and the Ojibwe and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. This territory is also covered by the Toronto Purchase. Today, Toronto is home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island. We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples connected to and on this land. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples.

Hymn: “All people that on earth do dwell”OLD HUNDREDTH

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the LORD with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth-tell;
come ye before Him and rejoice!

Know that the LORD is God indeed;
without our aid He did us make;
we are His flock, He doth us feed,
and for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise, approach with joy His courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless His name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

Because the LORD our God is good;
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From us and from the angel-host;
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

The Greeting

Bishop: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Bishop: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORY TO GOD (SUNG)

Cantor: Glory to God in the highest,

All: and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY (please remain standing)

Bishop: Let us pray (a moment of silence is taken)
Almighty God, who through your Son called Matthew to be your apostle and evangelist, free us from all greed and selfish love, that we may follow in the steps of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Proverbs
My child, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments; for length of days and years of life and abundant welfare they will give you. Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favour and good repute in the sight of God and of people. Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (Proverbs 3:1-6)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119: 33-40Chant: John Goss

Choir: Teach me, O Lord, the | way of ‘ your | statutes, *
and I shall | keep it | to the | end.

All: Give me understanding, and I shall | keep your | law; *
I shall | keep it ‘ with | all my | heart.

Choir: Make me go in the | path of ‘ your com|mandments, *
for | that is my desire.

All: Incline my | heart to ‘ your de|crees *
And | not to | unjust | gain.

Choir: Turn my eyes from | watching ‘ what is | worthless; *
give me | life | in your | ways.

All: Fulfil your | promise ‘ to your | servant, *
which you | make to | those who | fear you.

Choir: Turn away the re|proach ‘ which I | dread, *
Be |cause your | judgements ‘ are | good.

All: Behold, I | long for ‘ your com | mandments; *
in your | righteousness ‘ pre | serve my | life.

SECOND LESSON

Reader: A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy
As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.
(2 Timothy 3:14-17)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: “Halle, halle, hallelujah” TRADITIONAL

The Holy Gospel

Archdeacon: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Archdeacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Archdeacon: As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners." (Matthew 9:9-13)

Archdeacon: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily: The Rt. Rev. Andrew Asbil, Bishop of Toronto

THE APOSTLES CREED (Please stand)

Bishop: Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Please stand, sit, or kneel as is most prayerful and comfortable for you.

Representatives of the congregation come forward to light a candle.

To the bidding, "Let us pray," please respond, "Open our hearts to your love and wisdom."

Confession and Absolution

Bishop: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.
(silence).

Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Bishop: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace (Please stand.)

Bishop: The peace of the Lord be always with you

All: And also with you.

You are invited to share a word of peace with others in the congregation.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

The Preparation of the Gifts

Offertory Hymn: 300 "Christ is Made the Sure Foundation".....Westminster Abbey

Prayer Over the Gifts (please stand)

Bishop: Father, accept all we offer you this day. Guide us with your love as you nourish the faith of the Church by the preaching of your apostles. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Bishop: The Lord be with you

People: And also with you.

Bishop: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Bishop: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Bishop: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; heaven itself cannot contain you and your glory fills all the world. You accept our setting apart of places for your worship and in them pour out your gifts of grace upon your faithful people. This table is a sign to us of the heavenly altar, where your saints and angels praise you. Here we have recalled the sacrifice of your Son; here we have been fed with the body and blood of your Son; here our sins have been forgiven; here we have tasted the joys of your eternal kingdom. Grant that in these mysteries we may be united with one another and strengthened for service in your world. Therefore with angels and archangels and those who worship you in every age, we raise our voices in joyful praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Bishop: We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

All: we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Bishop: and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (sung)

Bishop: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Bishop: Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All: So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

THE COMMUNION

Bishop: The gifts of God for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Agnus Dei (Sung)

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Please wait for the direction of the Sidespeople.

If you would like to receive a blessing instead of Communion, please indicate this by crossing your hands over your chest as you approach the priest.

If you would like to receive the bread only, simply touch the base of the chalice as the wine is offered. Gluten free-hosts are available.

Communion Hymns: 73 "One bread, one body" ONE BREAD

"When at this table"FEASTDAY

When at this table I receive a blessing,

the broken bread, the wine of life for me,
then let me share the peace with you, my neighbour,
and let the Spirit set our spirits free.

If at this table I have need of healing,
unbidden grief, relationship gone wrong,
then let me know the hands of God enfolding,
and let lament become believing song.

If at this table I forget the hungry,
the dispossessed, and warfare's spreading stain,
then let this bread become the bread of judgement,
this wine the sharp awareness of that pain.

If at this table I make dedication to give my life in serving what is good,
then let my centre be where God invites me,
and show the words of Jesus understood.

What faith I have I bring to join this table,
what hope I hold, in Christ is taught and true.
With brothers, sisters, I will share the blessing,
the feast where God is making all things new.

Prayer after Communion (Please stand)

Bishop: Let us pray. God of mercy and compassion, we have shared the joy of salvation that Matthew knew when Jesus called him. May this food renew our life in him who came not to call the righteous but sinners to salvation in his kingdom, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Doxology

Bishop: Glory to God,

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Announcements

Hymn: (children please come forward) "We are the Church".....Port Jervis

Blessing

Recessional Hymn: "He who would valiant be" MONK'S GATE

They who would valiant be 'gainst all disaster,
Let them in constancy follow the Master.
There's no discouragement shall make them once relent
Their first avowed intent to be a pilgrim.

Who so beset them round with dismal stories
Do but themselves confound—their strength the more is.
No foes shall stay their might; though they with giants fight,
They will make good their right to be a pilgrim.

Since, Lord, Thou dost defend us with Thy Spirit,
We know we at the end, shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away! I'll fear not what they say,
I'll labour night and day to be a pilgrim.

Proverbs 3:1-6

Like most books of the Bible, Proverbs is a composite book, gathered over a long period of time from a variety of sources, drawn together and edited likely during the late exilic period (after 550 BCE). In the Jewish Bible it is classed among the Writings, and from early on it was recognized as poetry and given, along with Psalms and Jobs, a special form of pointing for vowels and singing aloud. The Hebrew name of the book, Mishlê, is from the word mashal, which means 'a comparison,' and points us to the fact that a large part of the book is made up of comparisons, or proverbs. Old Testament wisdom literature comes from many sources, beginning with the folk sayings of agricultural and trading communities, and developing over the centuries in the schools that prepared scribes and functionaries for the royal courts. The biblical tradition associates King Solomon with wisdom but the book of Proverbs is likely a collection of collections from various royal and other sources (see 10:1, 22:17, 24:23; 25:1, 30:1 and 31:1). As it comes to us, the editors have drawn all the material together with an extended introduction (chs. 1-9) in which a "father" speaks to his "son," urging the child to work hard, live a moral life, and avoid bad company. Our reading today comes from this parental address, drawing on themes of later biblical wisdom that see keeping the law as key to long and abundant life before God. Loyalty and faithfulness are likened to the tefillin bound around the forehead and the arms inscribed with texts that include the words of the Shema: "Hear O Israel..." that Jesus quotes in his summary of the Law.
